

List of programmes with restrictions for students with criminal convictions

Programmes that require Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks:

- MSc Psychodynamic Counselling and Psychotherapy with Children and Adolescents - clinical placements require DBS checks.
- Department of Psychology – any students undertaking projects which involve working with children require a DBS check.
- FD in Psychology for Educational Professionals - DBS required by employer or school placement.

Programmes that lead to a professional organisation/ membership of a professional body:

While most courses are open to those who hold a criminal conviction, before enrolling we would advise that applicants consider potential barriers to professional accreditation that they may wish to pursue after their degree: <https://www.nacro.org.uk/resettlement-advice-service/support-for-individuals/jobs-and-volunteering/>
